

We are thrilled to give you a look at how 2022 is shaping up with our events.

We are working hard on ensuring your feedback about our events is actioned and that final speakers and topics are locked in with dates and times so you can plan your NSW experience throughout 2022.

#createconnection

The power of IABC is the network of community peers. Hosted event to build your network, share experiences and best practice.

Communication roundtable

3 hand picked leading communicators sharing their insights and hosting a Q&A roundtable.

Communicating ESG impact

Hand picked leading communicators share how they communicate ESG impact both inside and outside the organisation.

Courageous Communication

Hand picked leading communicators share success and lessons learnt with reputational issues.

New South Wales

Key traits for today's CCOs

Hand picked leading communicators share how the role of the Chief Communication Officer is evolving rapidly.

Why have a Diversity and Inclusion strategy?

Hand picked leading communicators share critical nature of diversity and inclusion communication strategy

Certification

Promoting a common, global understanding of what constitutes professionalism and competence in communication.

Communication excellence

Show and tell with NSWs' best of the best helping you build your credibility through a Gold Quill award.

New South Wales

World conference

Showcase of key presentations, leveraging global network to share key insights from New York.

Networking for leaders

Connect, share and learn with strategic communication leaders.

Academic research

The cutting edge of communication research; opportunities and challenges for communicators.